Kohl's to donate $10,000 to HUNGER FIGHT through Kohl's National Giving Program
*Kohl's grants $10,000 for health and wellness of Jacksonville families

Jacksonville, FL — HUNGER FIGHT, Inc. announced today that it has been awarded a $10,000 grant through Kohl's Cares®, which provides grants to non-profits with a mission to support health and wellness for families. This grant will be used in support of Hunger Fight's mission to end childhood hunger and illiteracy in our community.

"We are very grateful and humbled by the recognition and grant from Kohl's Cares®," said Sherri Porter, Founder and Executive Director of Hunger Fight. "To be recognized and supported for the work we do addressing the issues of hunger in our community inspires us to continue making a difference in the lives of the children we serve."

Kohl's grant to Hunger Fight was made through Kohl's National Giving Program, which awards more than $3 million in grants annually to nonprofits with a mission to support health and wellness for families. The donations are made possible through Kohl's philanthropic program, Kohl's Cares®, which sells children's books and toys and donates 100 percent of the net profit to support happier and healthier communities nationwide.
