FreshJax donates $10,000 to HUNGER FIGHT
Working together to end childhood hunger in our community

Jacksonville, FL — HUNGER FIGHT, Inc. announced today that it has been awarded a $10,000 grant from FreshJax, a Jacksonville, Florida based family business that handcrafts organic spice blends. FreshJax donates a meal to a hungry child for every gift box purchased at their website. This grant will be used in support of Hunger Fight's mission to end childhood hunger and illiteracy in our community.

"We are very grateful and humbled by the recognition and grant from FreshJax," said Sherri Porter, Founder and Executive Director of Hunger Fight. "Donations from and partnerships with organizations like FreshJax inspires us to continue our mission to make a difference in the lives of the children we serve."

"We are excited to support the work of Hunger Fight that enables us to continue our mission of giving back to the community that has given us so much," said Jason McDonald, CEO of FreshJax. "The FreshJax mission to help with the fight against childhood hunger continues with this collaboration. Kids are our future and we won't stop fighting until we end childhood hunger."
